

Lincolnshire
POLICE & CRIME
COMMISSIONER

SAFER TOGETHER

POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER ELECTIONS
2 MAY 2024

JOINT PROTOCOL BETWEEN THE
OFFICE OF THE POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER AND LINCOLNSHIRE POLICE

Background

1. The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 provides for the election of Police and Crime Commissioners (PCCs) to be held at four yearly intervals. The last election was held on 6th May 2021 and the next election will be held on 2nd May 2024.
2. Unlike other elections, a feature of these elections is that they are focussed on policing, community safety and criminal justice issues. This will place the actions, behaviour and performance of the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner (OPCC) and Lincolnshire Police under intense scrutiny.
3. This Joint Protocol outlines some principles that the OPCC and Lincolnshire Police will apply with immediate effect along with more detailed guidance applicable from now until the election. This document will be published on the PCC's website and the Lincolnshire Police Intranet site.

Definition of Candidate

4. Under this Joint Protocol, 'Candidate' includes individuals who have been confirmed as standing for election, those expected to stand (prospective) and those expressing an interest in standing.

Principles

5. The principles that will be applied are as follows:

- The OPCC and Lincolnshire Police will continue to conduct their normal business.
- Potential, prospective and confirmed candidates will, together with their parties, be treated even-handedly and with impartiality.
- The OPCC and Lincolnshire Police's resources will not be used for party political or electioneering purposes.
- Only information that is appropriate to be put in the public domain will be supplied to candidates and parties.
- All officers, staff and volunteers of the OPCC and Lincolnshire Police will avoid any action which is or might reasonably be perceived to be supportive of any party, candidate or opinion.
- All officers, staff and volunteers of the OPCC and Lincolnshire Police will avoid putting themselves in a position or situation which could be used by a party or candidate in support of their election campaign.
- In the case of any doubt, Lincolnshire Police officers, staff and volunteers will seek advice from a senior officer and OPCC staff will seek advice from their Chief Executive.
- Neither the OPCC nor Lincolnshire Police will engage in any activity that is likely to affect or influence the outcome of the election or could be perceived as doing so.
- The above principles will equally apply to consultants engaged in the delivery of services on behalf of the PCC and Lincolnshire Police.

Single Point of Contact

6. It is expected that individuals will emerge over the coming weeks stating that they intend to seek election as the PCC for Lincolnshire.
7. The OPCC and Lincolnshire Police have each identified a single point of contact (SPOC) to whom any communication and enquiries from candidates or parties should be directed. For the OPCC this is John King, Corporate Administration Officer, Email: john.king@lincs.police.uk Tel: 07876 476057 and for the Force this is Laura Hallam, Senior Staff Officer to the Chief Constable, Email: Laura.Hallam2@lincs.police.uk Tel: 07795 910121.
8. Both SPOCs will maintain a log of their individual contacts/responses and the OPCC will maintain a central log of all contacts/responses.

Handling Requests for Information

9. There should be even handedness in meeting information requests from all candidates. The aim should be to respond to straightforward / routine requests as soon as possible, preferably within 24 hours. Candidates must only be given access to information that is appropriate to be put in the public domain. It should be recognised that the information provided may be exploited for political and campaigning purposes. In the main, the most expeditious means of achieving this will be to signpost candidates to the OPCC web site (www.Lincolnshire-pcc.gov.uk) and Lincolnshire Police website (www.Lincs.police.uk) and the PCC pages of the Home Office website (<https://www.gov.uk/police-and-crime-commissioners>). Information should not be processed, compiled or analysed in any way in order to meet a request.
10. Requests for data in formats or media different to those in which the data already exists are also discouraged. The OPCC may, in consultation with Lincolnshire Police, develop a small number of standardised briefing papers for candidates.
11. Where information is provided to an individual candidate that has not been made available to other candidates, it will be published on the dedicated OPCC web page: <https://lincolnshire-pcc.gov.uk/get-involved/pcc-election-2024/> If a request for information is related to the electoral process, this should be referred to the Police Area Returning Officer (PARO) for the election Angela Andrews, City of Lincoln Council: <https://www.lincoln.gov.uk/voting-elections/police-crime-commissioner-elections-7-may-2020/1>
12. Where it is an access to information request, the standard operating practice under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 will apply. The OPCC and Lincolnshire Police remain responsible under the Act for their own disclosures. Responses to information requests made by the OPCC and/or Lincolnshire Police shall be posted on the dedicated election page on the PCC's web site.

Candidate Currently Holding Office

13. The OPCC Chief Executive will be mindful of ensuring all candidates, including the current incumbent if standing for re-election, are treated equally.
14. The OPCC must not be involved in supporting the incumbent PCC in his election campaign. However, the Chief Executive will also be mindful of the 'business as usual approach' and ensure the PCC is supported in performing his statutory duties.
15. By virtue of his role, the PCC will have access to information beyond that which is in the public domain. This is appropriate to enable him to discharge his duties as Commissioner, however he will be reminded by the Chief Executive that any protectively marked material must not be used in his election campaigning. Any failure to observe this or attempt to encourage OPCC or Lincolnshire Police officers, staff and volunteers to deviate from the other principles in this Joint Protocol must be referred to the Chief Executive as a potential conduct matter and in certain circumstances may constitute a criminal offence.

16. Whilst the PCC will continue to participate in ongoing public engagements in the run-up to the election, such events must not be used for the purposes of electioneering.

Websites/Social Networking

17. It will be particularly important to take care with the OPCC and Lincolnshire Police websites, which will be scrutinised closely by the media and political parties in the run up to the election. They will be kept as up to date as practicable, contain no political bias, not give any exposure to any candidate and not indicate support for any candidate.
18. All officers, staff and volunteers of the OPCC and Lincolnshire Police that have personal websites, blogs or use social networking sites shall:
- not post any comments that could be seen to be, or give the impression to be, made in their professional role;
 - be aware that the higher their public profile is, the more likely it is they will be perceived as acting in their official capacity when using social networking sites;
 - be careful if making political points or making specific or personal comments about an individual candidate.

Meeting Requests, Visits by Candidates and Photo Opportunities

19. It is likely that candidates will request meetings with senior representatives of the OPCC and Lincolnshire Police and/or ask to visit police stations / observe police officers and staff at work. Again, the principles of even-handedness, impartiality and only sharing publicly accessible information should apply and therefore meetings of this nature will be limited in number and appropriately managed.
20. Agreeing to regular meetings with one candidate would necessitate meeting with all candidates with the same frequency, which is not practical. Any meetings will be managed by the relevant SPOC, a log maintained of the meeting, and meetings will be limited to the OPCC Chief Executive and Chief Constable. Such meetings should not appear to favour one candidate against another, whether in terms of information or public profile.
21. Care should be taken to prevent any official OPCC or Lincolnshire Police events such as engagement activity being used by a candidate for party political or campaigning purposes. Official support must not be given to, nor should there be attendance at, any event with a party political or campaigning purpose. Requests to attend or speak at campaign hustings must be refused.
22. Until the pre-election ('purdah') period begins on 22nd March 2024 (see separate guidance), it is acceptable for candidates to be filmed or photographed with OPCC and Lincolnshire Police officers, staff and volunteers for newspapers/television news bulletins; providing the individual is content to be filmed/photographed. However, once within the pre-election period, OPCC and Lincolnshire Police officers, staff and volunteers, will not be filmed or photographed. Additionally, before and throughout the pre-election period all officers, staff and volunteers must maintain their independence and not be seen to be bias and/or supporting one candidate or party over another. The OPCC and Lincolnshire Police will make it clear to all parties and candidates that they do not have permission to use any pre-existing photographs or publicity involving officers or staff in their campaign publicity nor may they use OPCC or Lincolnshire Police imagery, such as logos and badges. Where it is used, the Chief Executive or Chief Constable will consider the need to request the candidate to remove or withdraw the material. Each case will be judged on its merits but include consideration of the profile of the image, the message given, the degree of publication already achieved and the likely reputational damage and confidence in policing.

Use of Police Estate

23. The police estate will not be used by candidates for electioneering purposes. Computers, telephones, email, official stationery and administrative support will not be used in support of candidates.

Commenting Publicly

24. Where inaccurate comments about the OPCC and/or Lincolnshire Police are reportedly made by candidates or the media, they must be brought to the attention of the relevant SPOC. Where it is judged appropriate, a factually correct joint OPCC/Lincolnshire Police statement will be issued in response.
25. Officers, staff and volunteers of the OPCC and Lincolnshire Police must not offer political opinions, nor make any statements that do not reflect the policies of the OPCC and Lincolnshire Police or that could cause controversy for either organisation.
26. Specifically, police officers must comply with organisational principles and expected standards of behaviour that are set out in the Police Regulations 2003, 2012 and 2020, the Code of Ethics, the Representation of the People Act 1983 and all relevant internal policies and guidelines.
27. The Police Regulations 2003 set out conditions of service, and paragraph 1 of schedule 1 states “members of a police force shall at all times abstain from any activity which is likely to interfere with the impartial discharge of his/her duties or which is likely to give rise to the impression amongst members of the public that it may so interfere; and in particular a member of the police force shall not take any active part in politics.”
28. The Code of Ethics is a code of practice for the principles and standards of professional behaviour for the policing profession of England and Wales. It reaffirms that Police officers must not take any active part in politics. The Code reaffirms the position of political restrictions placed on police officers, and highlights other expected standards of behaviour, the most relevant to pre-election matters being honesty and integrity, orders and instructions, confidentiality and conduct.
29. Section 100 of the Representation of the People Act 1983 makes it a criminal offence for a police officer to “...by word, message, writing or in any manner, endeavour to persuade any person to give, dissuade any person from giving, his vote, whether as an elector or as proxy”, in any parliamentary or local elections.

30. With the exception of the Deputy PCC, all staff employed within the OPCC hold politically restricted posts within the meaning of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, which means they may not engage in political activity in their professional capacity (Sch.16 part 3 para.200 of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act refers). They are also bound by the Local Government Code of Publicity which places restrictions on how public money can be spent to support political activity.

31. Further guidance may be issued during the period prior to the election.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Malcolm Burch', written over a horizontal line.

Malcolm Burch
Chief Executive

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Chris Haward', with a small flourish underneath.

Chris Haward
Chief Constable